IMPORTANT

New Youth Work Practice and Safeguarding Standards!

The Youth Work Practice Standards outlines the minimum requirements for the delivery of youth work. It is your guide to suitable levels of governance, planning and evaluation and highlights the requirements in place which affect providers and young people. It illustrates best practice and everything a youth work organisation needs to know to deliver youth work legally, safely and effectively. It is a go-to guide to support youth work delivery across all levels of organisation.

The Safeguarding Standards have been designed to support good safeguarding practices for all those working with children and young people, adults at risk, volunteers and paid staff in youth work environments.
