

Young Manchester Updates

Happy Friday! - We have a great update for you this week, including:
7x opportunities, 3x trainings and 3x job vacancies

'The Future Is Ours' Festival 2023 @ The Horsfall

The third The Future Is Ours Festival is coming up, celebrating youth creativity, action, and voice. The festival showcases original artwork created by 9 young artists accessing The Horsfall.

The festival takes place in various locations around Manchester, with a Festival of Randomness on 25th March and an exhibition at The Horsfall from 18th-15th April.

Where: The Horsfall, 87-91 Great Ancoats Street, Ancoats, M4 5AG

Find out more about the festival via the link below:

READ MORE

THE FUTURE is OURS!

18th - 25th March 2023

Celebrating Young People's Creativity, Voice and Action, with a week of exhibitions, workshops, talks and events.

THE HORSFALL

42ND
STREET

phf Paul Hamlyn
Foundation

OPPORTUNITIES

Paid Project for Young Creatives with Kids of Colour!

Kids of Colour is seeking young people (16-25) who live in Greater Manchester to work one day a week on a paid project of their choice relating to the themes of race, identity, and culture.

The project could involve taking photos, creating art, writing poetry, conducting research, or exploring campaign ideas, among other options.

Deadline to apply is Thursday 13th April (10pm) - find more information on how to apply below.

READ MORE

OPPORTUNITIES

Win prizes this spring with the Bike Month Challenge!

Love to Ride is an online platform that promotes bike riding for health, wellness, and sustainability goals. The aim is to encourage people to ride bikes, switch from cars to handlebars, and promote the benefits of cycling.

It's free for any organisation in Greater Manchester to participate and win prizes by taking three simple steps: set a goal, enjoy a bike ride, and achieve the goal.

Find out more and register your team below

READ MORE

Follow Us on Social Media

OPPORTUNITIES

FREE beginner's coding course from MadLab!

Over 5-weeks MadLab are offering a FREE coding course for young people (18-30)

Learn the fundamentals of web development, CSS, HTML, and JavaScript and receive professional skills development and career advice. .

For more information visit the link below. You can also email team@clickmcr.com or phone/ WhatsApp Claire at 07874 040940

READ MORE ▶

OPPORTUNITIES

Apply now for HOME's Young Film Collective

HOME are excited to announce the launch of the HOME Young Film Collective. A 12 month film programme open to 16 - 25 year olds, based in Manchester and GM.

Every month the Young Film Collective will meet for free film workshops covering everything from practical filmmaking skills, film theory, film reviewing, distribution and more. The year long programme will also include film screenings, industry talks and will culminate in the making of a short film

The deadline to apply is Wednesday, 22nd March (5pm)

READ MORE ▶

Follow Us on Social Media

OPPORTUNITIES

Become a creative apprentice with Power Up Agency!

Power Up Agency are now recruiting apprentices for their first cohort.

As a Creative Project Apprentice you will work to support projects with one of their host employers. Projects could be in teams who deliver marketing, digital, community, arts, festivals, architecture and publishing and during your apprenticeship you will learn the basics of project and stakeholder management, whilst putting these skills into practice.

They're running a recruitment day on Monday 20th March - all you need to do is register your details on their website.

READ MORE

OPPORTUNITIES

Voluntary Work Experience for Young People

Talent RISE, EMERGE, and FareShare have partnered to offer 4 voluntary roles in their work experience programme to support young people.

The available positions include Warehouse Assistant, Kitchen Assistant, Driver's Assistant, and Woodwork Recycling Assistant. Candidates will gain an L2 certificate and meaningful work experience that can be transferred to jobs in logistics, hospitality, distribution, and carpentry.

Interested candidates must reach out by Monday, March 20 (10am) via the website below.

READ MORE

Follow Us on Social Media

OPPORTUNITIES

Are you a young person with SEND? Sign up to 'FLIP' today

Projekts MCR and Bill & Andy's Music School have partnered together to offer weekly music and skateboarding workshops as part of the S.E.N.D local offer, supported by Young Manchester and Manchester City Council.

When: Every Tuesday (4:30-6:30)

Where: Projekts Skatepark, 97 London Rd, M1 2PG

To book email info@billyandandy.co.uk or phone Andy on 07429 826053

READ MORE

TRAINING

GMYN Introduction to Youth Work Training

Over three sessions the Introduction to Youth Work (ItYW) training programme will provide an introduction to several different aspects of youth work including both theoretical and practical applications in a range of youth work settings.

Each session will run 4pm - 8pm @ Manchester Settlement (The New Roundhouse).

Register your place via the Eventbrite below

READ MORE

Follow Us on Social Media

TRAINING

Free interactive workshops from RADEQUAL

Join communities from across the city at a series of workshops being delivered through the RADEQUAL campaign to build awareness and resilience on issues that people have told us are a concern or important to them.

We're offering a series of FREE interactive workshops that you can pick and choose to attend.

When: Thursday 23 March 2023 (9.30am - 5.15pm)

Where: Friends Meeting House, 6 Mount Street, Manchester M2 5NS

Book your place now using the link below

READ MORE ▶

TRAINING

GMCVO are looking for Community Trainers

The Train the Trainer (TtT) course trains people to become Community Trainers and deliver the 'Living Life to the Full' (LLTTF) course across Greater Manchester on a non-commercial basis.

Upcoming training dates are Thursday 27th and Friday 28th April 2023 via Zoom.

Follow the link below to find out more and register your interest in becoming a Community Trainer

READ MORE ▶

Follow Us on Social Media

JOB VACANCIES

Freelance Digital Tools & Processes Practitioner

Odd Arts are hoping to enhance, professionalise and simplify for users, their current systems around billing, expenses, training access, policies, bookings, tracking and monitoring.

Timescale:

- Completed by end of April 2023

Fee:

- The estimated fee set aside for this work is £1500 - £3500

You can view the role description below.

The deadline to apply is Thursday 22nd March (midnight)

READ MORE ▶

JOB VACANCIES

Roles supporting GMYN's 'Unaccompanied Asylum-Seeking Children' Programme

Over the next 3 years GMYN will support 240 unaccompanied children residing in the 10 boroughs of Greater Manchester .

They are currently recruiting the following roles:

UASC Programme Manager:

- 28-35 hours per week (flexible)
- £29,439 - £31,099 per annum

UASC Programme Coordinator:

- Full Time (maternity cover)
- £25,874 - £26,845 per annum

UASC Programme Worker:

- Full Time - 35 hours per week
- £23,194 - £24,496 per annum

READ MORE ▶

READ MORE ▶

READ MORE ▶